ESCAPES FROM MEXICO, LEAVING ALL HIS PROPERTY

Samuel Blair Mosby Arrives in Richmond After Exciting Experience.

Those Who Molested Americans.

Saw Mexicans Burn American Flag. Says Huerta Promised Immunity to

Famuel Blair Mosby, of Richmond, who for the past seven years has been living in Mexico, arrived here last night, having left Manzanillo, Mexico, on the Pacific coast, two weeks ago.

Mr. Mosby traveled from Manzanillo to San Diego, Cal., on a German tramp steamer, the Marie, which arrived at steamer, the Marte, which arrived at the California port hast Saturday. He was one of 259 refugees who arrived on this ship. He said that when the ship left Manzanillo the captain was not allowed to secure a full supply of provisions and water, owing to the displeasure incurred because of his tak-ing refugees from that place. Mr Mosby lived in Guadanjara, in the Stare of Jalisco, which is less than 100 miles from Manzanillo. He said that two trainloads of refugees were brought out of Guadalajara, and when brought out of Guadalajara, and when making the trip the trains were the object of attacks by Mexicans, who hurled rocks through the windows. At one point along the National Railroad, the Mexicans burned an American flag in the presence of the Americans.

"I learned just before leaving Manzanillo that fluerta had instructed his commander there to allow the Americans to leave, but in his instructions he inserted a proviso that should an
